IIQA CLARIFICATION

3. Institution name in the University Affiliation Letter is not matching with IIQA Application. Institution name should be same in across all the documents as per the university affiliation letter.

RESPONSE: The College was originally given affiliation on Ramanath Guljarilal Kedia College of Commerce. However, for the operational purposes we are using the name as R.G. Kedia College of Commerce, In Hyderabad under Osmania University there is only one college by name R.G. Kedia College of Commerce (College Code:1170).

4. In the Institutional Website M.Sc and M.Com programmes are mentioned but same is not reflecting in the IIQA Application, University affiliation letter and Self Declaration Certificate clarify.

RESPONSE: M.Com was granted affiliation initially under Ramanath Guljarilal Kedia College of Commerce. However, subsequentially the management requested the Osmania University to change the name to Syo Narayan Ramcharan Patwari PG college of Commerce (college code 1267). For the information and convenience of Stakeholders this program is reflected in Website. Hence, we have neither included this program for filling the IIQA Application nor in the NAAC Accreditation Process.

The M.Sc Program is affiliated to Osmania University under the name of Ramanath Guljarilal Kedia College of Commerce (R.G. Kedia College of Commerce). The Governing Council has decided not to include this particular program (M.Sc) neither in IIQA Application nor in the NAAC Accreditation process due to poor admission and effect of Covid.

The Information is true to the best of my knowledge.
